SUBJECT: MALDIVES WILL VOTE WITH U.S. IN UNGA THIRD
COMMITTEE ON BURMA AND DPRK, BE ABSENT FOR IRAN

REF: A) STATE 117901 B) STATE 93981

1. (SBU) Foreign Minister Ahmed Shaheed reported to Ambassador that Maldives would vote against the no-action resolutions on Burma and DPRK and vote in favor of the resolutions. However, citing a common stand taken by the Organization of Islamic Countries, Shaheed said Maldives would not be able to vote in a similar way on the Iran resolution. Instead, the FM instructed his UN delegation to be absent during both the no-action motion as well as the resolution itself. Embassy understands that this represents an improvement in Maldives' position on Third Committee resolutions since last year.
